No. blooms displayed: 2200. Attendance: 3000. Admission: Silver offering

Awards: Best Flower: Flame, exhibited by Mrs. L. I. Merritt

A. C. S. Gold Certificate: Mrs. P. R. Smith

A. C. S. Silver Certificate: Mrs. Amelia Biddle, Carolina Beach Road, N.C.

Best Arrangement: Mrs. Henry B. Rehder

Remarks: The show was held despite seven freezes during preceding 30 day period. Excellent show for educational purposes, showing many varieties which withstood cold. Local themes were used and excellent arrangements shown. Wooden fences, smilax, pines, moss and native magnolias and greens were used to present pleasing backgrounds. Many seedlings were shown but Judges did not see fit to award Certificate.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, February 25-26, 1956 (12th Annual)

Sponsor: Men's Tidewater Garden Club

Officials: Henry B. Rehder, Chairman; M. G. Schnibben and C. D. Powell, Co-Chairmen

No. Blooms displayed: 2,000. Attendance: 3,500. Admission: Silver offering

Awards: Best Flower: (in open) Flame Var., exhibited by Mrs. P. R. Smith

(under glass) Blood of China, exhibited by Mrs. Henry Wyche

A.C.S. Gold Certificate: won by Mrs. P. R. Smith

A.C.S. Silver Certificate: won by Mrs. Arthur Tousignant

Best Arrangement: won by Mrs. Henry B. Rehder

A.C.S. memberships sold: four

Remarks: Specimen blooms were displayed on moss and not in water, but we found that the flowers did not keep too well. The background decorations were smilax, moss and burlap. A special exhibit of original water color paintings of camellias by the prominent artists, Mrs. S. L. Marbury, Virginia McQueen and C. E. White, made interesting backgrounds.

The show was staged on two levels. This we found to be an undesirable arrangement, as it was difficult to get the arrangements upstairs. As a result of this experience, we recommend that the shows be held on one level. Special training of members of the Men's Committee and Boy Scouts to carry entries from cars provided for a smooth, efficient show. The advertising done by T.V., Radio and press helped to draw a crowd. A poster contest was held among school children, and prizes awarded to winners. A special award was given to the bloom of the variety Mrs. D. W. Davis which was entered by S. L. Marbury. The plant had not been in his possession long enough to qualify it for competition. Door prizes were given away at the close of the show.

Miss Debra Paget, Queen of 12th Annual Azalea Festival, Wilmington, North Carolina, cuts the ribbon in the Henry Rehder garden officially opening the Festival Garden Tour on April 3, 1959. Mrs. A. B. Bethune (left) was chairman of the Garden Tour, and Mrs. J. W. Lamberson was president of the Wilmington Garden Club. The camellias worn by the ladies were presented by S. L.
